Miss Weisiger Honored-Funeral of Mr. W. D. Patch-Stores to Close at 7 P. M. Trial of Lynch-Criminals at Large.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK.

The following, relative to the daughter of a former Manchesterian, Mr. Samuel Weisiger, is taken from an Augusta (Ga.)

"Miss Clara H. Weisiger returned home yesterday afternoon from the Wesleyan Female College, in Macon, bringing with her many henors, which she win from a large class, and she now bears the title of A .B., which is, indeed, quite an bonor. She also has a diploma in stenography and typewriting, and along nography and typewriting, and along with her other trophies she now wears a handsome gold medal, having been acknowledged by the judge the most skilled pupil in the drawing class. Miss Weisiger has made a wonderful record during her two years' course at the Wesleyan, and won many honors. Augusta is truly proud of her accomplished and talonted datghter, and congratulates her upon her fine standing at so noted a college." The funeral of Mr. J. D. Patch, whose death on last Saturday night was noted in Sunday's Times, took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of the deceased, near Manchester, and morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of the deceased, near Manch-ster, and the remains were interred in Maury cemetery. Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr of Richmond, Rev. C. N. Van Houten, Rev. J. J. Clopton and Rév. W. C. Vaden took part in the funeral services.

Mr. Patch had been a sufferer from heart disease for years. He was a very popular old gentlemun, and did much towards developing Manchester.

Nearly all the dry goods, millinery and shoes stores in the city have agreed to close their places of business at 7 P. M., except on Saturdays, the 15th and 20th of each month, and July 3d, from June except on Saturdays, the 15th and 20th of each month, and July 3d, from June 5th to September 15th inclusive.

A very large crowd went out to Forest Hill Fark on Sunday. The cars on the Perry-street line were taxed to their capacities from early in the morning. Judge B. A. Hancock was holding the circuit court of Petersburg yesterday. Several parties engaged in a Saturday night row have been summoned before the mayor's court to-day.

A number of persons from Manchester went down to Norfolk Saturday night on the steamer Ariel's excursion.

on the steamer Ariel's excursion.

A paper was being circulated yesterday for signitures asking for a primary election in Manchester in reference to the governer McKinney, General Peyton Wise, Major Clay Drewry, and several other Richmond gentlemen spent Sunday at "Fonticello" as the guests of Mr. William G. Taylor.

Next Monday is Chesterfield court-day. The most important case to be con-sidered is that of James Lynch, charged sidered is that of James Lynch, charged with the murder of the one-armed stran-ger near Chester. Commonwealth's At-torney Cogbill has been hard at work on this case, and thinks he has some importance evidence against the accused.

The negro who is believed to have set fire to Mr. Wood's store last week has fire to Mr. Wood's store last week has not as yet been apprehended. Neither has the negro who cut Mr. John Turner several days ago at Clopton station, just below Manchester, on the Richmond and Petersburg railroad. Daniel Brown, the negro who put Rough on Rats in his wife's meal barrel, in an attempt to murder the entire family, is also at large. The two last named are believed to have gone South.

The light committee of the city council held a meeting in the council chamber last evening. Nothing but routine busi-ness was taken up.

JUSTICE JOHN'S COURT.

A Big Fat Monday Docket, in Which a Manchester Man Figured.

The docket yesterday morning at the Temple was a big, fat Monday docket, resembling the large, fleshy woman that stood next to the post near the tribunal, fterwards paid something like $2.50 and atterwards paid something like $2.50 for allowing her temper to run away with her tongue, which, by the way, was somewhat longitudinal, judging from the fluent phraseology she used during the

Clinton West, who was charged with assaulting and beating his wife "conspicuous for his absence," ar case was accordingly continued till the 7th instant, as was also the case of Henry Morton (colored), charged with being a fugitive from Justice from Gooch-land county, where he is wanted to answer the charge of larceny.

Rebecca Coleman and Annie Lew's (both colored) paid $2.50 for being street ambiers, and John Garnett (colored) paid $4.10 for cursing, abusing and using a few phrases inappropriate for parler usage to Hattie Brown on the street. It cost John Gavin $5.70 for abusing and cursing Policeman Hackett while in the discharge of his duty, while Pat Willis got drunk and disorderly, rode in the coupe and resisted Policeman Butle while in the discharge of his duty. He is now $3.70 poorer for his conduct.

Frank Thompson was sent to the grand jury on the charge of forgery and attempting to employ as true a certain paper purporting to be an order drawn by E. H. Kelly on E. W. Kelly for the payment of five dollars, knowing the order to be forged with intent to defraud. Mr. Kelly keeps a grocery store on the corner of Munford and Broad streets, where the check was presented. Thompson acknowledged to a police officer that he succeeded in cashing the check, but stated that he had no inten-tion of committing fraud. He expected to make the money good.

It cost Willie Sack the cozy little sum of $15.50 for being drunk and resisting Officer Dugan while in the discharge of his duty. He will probably have to save up for a while in order to dally with the refreshing julep again.

In the cases of Forest L. Glenn, Eugene Cates and Henry Burnett, charged with breaking in the night time and entering the store of J. J. Umlauf and carrying away a lot of wine, evidence showed that the boys were in a jolly good humor and entered the place out of fun. They were required to give security in the were required to give security in the sum of $100 for sixty days. Zack Monroe and Peyton Lewis (both colored) engaged in a sequested little same of craps on the street, for which they were required to ante $3 each. Boys confine your caming to the social clubs. It is dangerous to enter into this kind of enjoyment on the public street.

R. A. Baugh was fined $5.50 and required to give security in the sum of $300 for twelve months for assaulting and using indecent language to Huna Ferri-ter on the street, Baugh lives in Man-chester, and is about forty-eight years of age He came over to Richmond on Sunday evening on a jag and met Miss Ferriter near the corner of Seventh and Canal streets, where he made improper advances towards her. She struck at him with her umbrella and ran up the street towards her brother's place on Seventh and Cary streets. Baugh fol-lowed her to her house, and, in her haste to get away, she fell, hurting her hand quite severely. Haugh was arrested and carried to the Second Police station

After a number of Sunday jags were uly disposed of, the court adjourned on a bob-tail flush.

Executive Clemency.

Governor McKinney yesterday removed the political disabilities of M. J. Puryear, who in December, 1885, was sentenced in the County Court of Dinwiddle to pay a fine of $160 for unlawful cutting. The Governor removed his political disabilities at the request of the county judge, Com-monwealth's attorney and a great many

The Governor granted a pardon to John

Mattox, who in November, 1801, was sentenced in the Campbell County Court to three years in the penitentiary for house-breaking. The pardon was granted solely upon the ground of his health as certified by the surgeon to the penitentiary and recommended by Superintendent Lynn.

The Governor declined to pardon Preston Fontleroy, who in February last was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary sentenced to one year in the penitentiary in the Washington County Court for unlawful wounding.

SOLDIERS MOVING.

The Richmond and Danville Military Train on a Forty Mile Schedule.

Two batteries of United States artillery, comprising about 150 men, passed through Richmond yesterday morning en oute to Fort Monroe. They came from McPherson's barracks, near Atlanta, and McPherson's barracks, near Atlanta, and were accompanied by their families. They traveled in a special train on the Richmond and Danville, which was transferred here to the Chesapeake and Ohio. The train consisted of a Pullman, three coaches and three express cars, loaded with accourtements. The Richmond and Danville railroad arranged for meals, as well as transportation, and put them well as transportation, and put them through on a schedule of forty miles an Delaying the Publication.

Ccionel John Bell Bigger is bustly engaged in his correspondence with the fifteen Southern Governors. His work is the outcome of the recent convention of Governors of the Suthern States, held in this city, when it was decided that each Governor should furnish a paper not to exceed 5,000 words, setting forth the ad-vantages of their various States with a view of inviting immigration to South.

A committee was appointed, consisting of Governor McKinney, Governor Fish-back and Colonel Bigger, to have all these papers which were to be sent in before June 1st published in book form, to be distributed at the World's Fair in Chicago. It was also decided that each State could have published with its paper half a dozen views of points of interest, provided they sent in the plates. Up to the present time only Governor Fishback, of Arkansas, and Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, have complied with the request, and Colonel Bigger is urging the other Governors to be as prompt as possible in forwarding their papers and cuts. Each State will have to contribute the sum of $300 towards defraying the expenses of the publication, in accordance with the action of the convention.

Married an English General.

Mrs. Laura Marie Buckley, who re-cently married Major-General Sir Henry William Holland, C. B., of Her Majesty's William Holland, C. B., of Her Majesty's Bombay staff corps (retired), is the daughter of the late Samuel Sutherland, of this city. The wedding took place on May 22d at St. Silas', Logells, Birmingham, England, and the Rev. David A. Maxwell, M. A., vicar, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Herbert A. Bull, M. A.

Miss Sutherland married when quite young Captain Thomas Louis Mills, of Louisiana, a gallant Confederate soldier, attached to the Tenth Louisiana regiment, who died of wounds received at the battle of the "Wilderness," leaving her with two infant daughters. She afterwards marinfant daugnters, she at the ried Edward Buckley, of Birmingham, England, who died a few years ago. Many Richmond friends remember with love and admiration Miss Laura Sutherland, and now congratulate her as Mrs. Major-General Henry William Holland.

Over a Thousand Prisoners.

Shadrach Lee, a negro from King George county, made the twelve hundred and thirty-fourth prisoner in the peni-tentiary yesterday. He is to be confined one year for unlawful assault. The State's prison is a cool place, and the men and women there suffer but little if any from heat, consequently yesterday's temperature disturbed them but little.
